AIDED BY THE MAGNETIC RAYS OF THE GRAVITY ROD THE MAN OF NIGHT FIGHTS SINGLE-HANDED AGAINST A MYSTERIOUS ORIENTAL SABOTAGE CLIQUE IN THE "ADVENTURE OF THE SINGAPORE STRANGLERS"

by JACK BURNLEY

FEDDORE KNIGHT, BORED PLAY BOY WHO ALWAYS WAGNES HE'S SICK, IS DANCING WITH HIS FIANCEE, JOE'S LEE, AT A PARTY-

ISN'T THIS GLORIOUS DANCE MUSIC, TED?

ER-WELL, I WISH THEY'D SLOW DOWN THE TEMPO- THIS FAST DANCING IS BAD FOR MY HEART!

JUST AS I FEARED! I FEEL A DIZZY SPELL COMING ON! THAT SUING MUSIC MADE ME DANCE TOO STRENUOUSLY! OH-H! I FEEL FAINT!

NOW, TED! DON'T GO AND SPOIL EVERYTHING WITH YOUR IMAGINARY SICK SPELLS!

CATCH ME, SOMEBODY! I-I'M GOING TO F-FAINT!

DISGUSTING! FAINTING LIKE A SILLY GIRL!

GIVE HIM AIR!

POOR TED IS ILL AGAIN!

I'VE GOT TO GET HOME, PHIL! I'M NOT A WELL MAN!

YOU'LL BE ALL RIGHT, TED-I'LL HELP YOU TO YOUR CAR!

SORRY YOU FEEL BAD OLD BOY! I'LL ESCORT DORIS HOME!

THANKS, PHIL! ON-A--MY HEAD!

YOUR CAR, SIR!

DRIVE TO THE WILWOOD SANITARIUM, JEEVES-- I NEED A PHYSICAL CHECK-UP AND REST! LOTS OF REST!

YES, SIR! THAT'S RIGHT, SIR!

AS TED'S CAR PULLS UP AT THE SANITARIUM ENTRANCE--

AN AMAZING CHANGE! IN THE BACK OF THE CAR, SICKLY TED KNIGHT NO LONGER LOOKS ILL. HE WITH-DRAWS A LUMINOUS CYLINDER FROM A SECRET HOLSTER!

I HATED TO LEAVE DORIS LIKE THAT, BUT VIBRATIONS FROM THE GRAVITY ROD MEAN THAT CHIEF ALLEN NEEDS HELP!

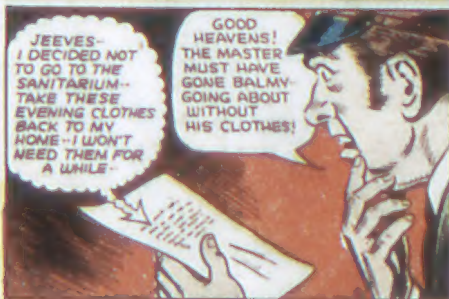

HERE WE ARE, SIR--I'LL HELP YOU UP THE STEPS!

JEEVES IS ASTOUNDED TO FIND--

NO ONE IN THE CAR! JUST THE MASTER'S CLOTHES--AND A NOTE!

JEEVES-- I DECIDED NOT TO GO TO THE SANITARIUM-- TAKE THESE EVENING CLOTHES BACK TO MY HOME--I WON'T NEED THEM FOR A WHILE--

GOOD HEAVENS! THE MASTER MUST HAVE GONE BALMY--GOING ABOUT WITHOUT HIS CLOTHES!

THE CHAUFFEUR IS PUZZLED, BUT WE KNOW THE SECRET OF TED'S DISAPPEARANCE NOW, AS STARNAN HE IS CARRIED THRU THE NIGHT BY THE WEIRD POWER OF THE GRAVITY ROD!

THERE'S OUR MOUNTAIN MEETING PLACE-- ALLEN SHOULD BE THERE BY NOW!

STARMAN REACHES THE SHACK'S ENTRANCE, DOOLEY ALLEN, F.B.I. AGENT, OPENS THE DOOR--

STARMAN! WE NEED YOUR HELP ON ANOTHER SABOTAGE CASE!

MORE FOREIGN SPIES, EH? WHAT ARE THEY UP TO NOW, ALLEN?

A NUMBER OF OUR SHIPS HAVE BEEN BADLY DAMAGED WHILE IN PORT AT THE GOTHAM DOCKS--THEIR ENGINES WERE DESTROYED BY A GIANT ACETYLENE TORCH MORE POWERFUL THAN ANY KNOWN TO SCIENCE! THESE SABOTEURS ARE TRICKY AND ELUSIVE--THEY HAVE BEEN ABLE TO SLIP PAST ALL OUR GUARDS!

ANY IDEA HOW WE CAN TRAP THESE SLIPPERY SPIES?

THE S.S. PARAGON IS NOW DOCKED AT PIER 17 IN GOTHAM--I PURPOSELY LEFT ONLY ONE GUARD ON DUTY TONIGHT--THE SHIP SABOTEURS WON'T OVERLOOK SUCH A CHANCE TO STRIKE!

-AND I'LL BE WAITING FOR THEM!

NOW TO HEAD FOR PIER 17-- I HOPE THE SABOTEURS SHOW UP!

LEAVING ALLEN, STARMAN SOARS WITH BLINDING SPEED OVER THE SLEEPING CITY OF GOTHAM!

MEANWHILE--AT PIER 17, THE GUARD'S ATTENTION IS DRAWN BY A TAPPING SOUND COMING FROM BEHIND SOME CRATES--

THAT PECULIAR NOISE--WHAT CAN IT BE? I'D BETTER TAKE A LOOK AT THOSE CRATES!

THERE DOESN'T SEEM TO BE ANYONE HERE--I COULD HAVE SWORN I HEARD SOMEONE TAPPING!

WELL DONE, ALI SINGH!
THE GUARD IS DONE
FOR! NOW--INTO THE SHIP!

STARMAN CLIMBS INTO THE BIG VENT AND PLUNGES DOWNWARD--

STARMAN HURTLÉS DOWN INTO THE ENGINE ROOM AND SCATTERS THE THUGS LIKE TEN PINS!

EXCUSE ME FOR DROPPING IN SO SUDDENLY!

STARMAN TURNS TO FACE AN ORIENTAL THUG WIELDING THE GAS ACETYLENE TORCH

PUT THAT SPARKLER DOWN--IT'S NOT THE FOURTH OF JULY!

A BOLT FROM THE GRAVITY ROD CAUSES THE TORCH TO MELT IN A SHOWER OF BURNING SPARKS!

I'LL SHOW YOU SOME REAL FIREWORKS!

HAIE!

ARRGH!

YOU BOYS ARE TOO DESTRUCTIVE! I'LL KNOCK SOME SENSE INTO YOUR HEADS!

HE TOSSES THE HOWLING THUG AGAINST THE METAL WALL!

HAPPY LANDINGS!

BEHIND STARMAN, AN INNER PORTHOLE OPENS SILENTLY...

WHO HIRED YOU TO SABOTAGE AMERICAN SHIPS? DON'T TELL ME YOU THOUGHT UP THIS RACKET ALL BY YOURSELVES OR I'LL KNOCK YOU ALL THE WAY BACK TO SINGAPORE! SPEAK UP! WHO'S THE BIG BOSS?

TOO LATE, STARMAN WHEELS AS A HISSING COIL OF ROPE ENCLOSES HIM, PINIONING HIS ARMS!

HEY! WHAT?

BIND THE COSTUMED ONE SECURELY—WE WILL GIVE HIM A TASTE OF ORIENTAL REVENGE!

I SHOULD HAVE REMEMBERED THE ROPE TRICKS OF THIS STRANGLER SECT!

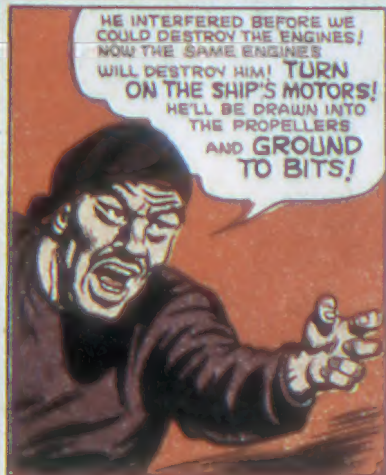

I AM POSSESSED OF AN IDEA! TAKE THIS RASH MEDDLER TO THE STERN OF THE SHIP AND THROW HIM OVERBOARD!

WHAT? NO STRANGLING TODAY?

HE WILL DIE A HORRIBLE DEATH!

HE INTERFERED BEFORE WE COULD DESTROY THE ENGINES! NOW THE SAME ENGINES WILL DESTROY HIM! TURN ON THE SHIP'S MOTORS! HE'LL BE DRAWN INTO THE PROPELLERS AND GROUND TO BITS!

LUMBERJACK. By Stephen W. Meader.

Harcourt Brace, & Co.

If Dan Garland was to go to college, money must be found to send him. So the famous and valuable Garlands on his grandfather's acres in New Hampshire must fall beneath the axes of the strong lumberjacks. Dan did man's work that cold winter, cutting, hauling and sawing the lumber that was to pay his way through college.

All went well until the camp ran afoul of a neighborhood secondhand. Dan's part in rescuing Jotham Grant's truck struck down and frozen almost to the point of death—preventing a horse-theft, and finally in saving the whole camp from a forest fire started by their enemy, won him the respect of the hard-bitten crew at the sawmill.

Ask for LUMBERJACK at your neighborhood library.

SERGEANT YORK With Gary Cooper, Walter Brennan and Joan Leslie. A Warner Brothers picture.

This is the thrilling true story of a real hero—a hero of the first World War, who is still living. We meet Al York first on his mother's farm in Tennessee—a boy drinking, hard-fighting, reckless young mountaineer. All is changed when he gets religion, and he becomes a careful, useful young man. Then comes the war, and he is drafted for service overseas.

His country's freedom is at stake, and in the heat of battle he sees that he must kill to protect others from being killed. He leads his men over the top into the teeth of machine gunfire. There is fierce and bloody hand-to-hand fighting. With only eight of his men left, he kills off the enemy's gunners, and almost single-handed captures one hundred and thirty-two Germans.

News of his marvelous feat travels fast. Decorated with the Medal of Honor by General Pershing and by the French Army, he returns home to a hero's welcome, but slips away from the glamour of New York to resume his peaceful life on his farm in Tennessee.

by Edgar Weston

THERE was no such word as mnemonics in the vocabulary of Constable Waldo Jenson of His Majesty's London Constabulary. Had there been, the Constable would have known the word meant "the art or science of improving the memory."

And Constable Jepson would have recoiled in horror. His memory needed no improvement. It seemed well-nigh perfect. Therein lay the trouble.

Pounding his new beat now in Limehouse, a far cry from swanky West End, Constable Jepsen pondered the woe that had been inflicted upon him. All through life he had had this seeming affliction. Facts, places, and figures, once seen, stuck to his brain like flypaper.

Consequently, when having dinner at Sergeant Blaney's a week prior to this exile, his memory had once more placed him in disfavor. Recalling, Constable Jepson smiled wryly.

Mrs. Blancy, after coffee, had commented on how the force overworked her poor darling—a rugged, red-faced man, by the way. "It's simply criminal," she averred, "making my Jasper work all night a week ago last Tuesday!"

Instantly, Constable Jepeon's infallible memory did a flashback. The Constable did not see the anxious gaze of the Sergeant, so busy were his mental processes. "Why, no, mum," Constable Jepeon said brightly. "You are mistaken. That was the night the Sergeant didn't work. Don't you remember, Sergeant, I got your other suit from the presser's?"

Next day Constable Jepson was walking the Limehouse beat

In peacetime, Lamahouse was difficult enough, with its mixture of races, and its low standards of living. In wartime the work was doubly difficult because people emotionally upset are hard to handle.

But Constable Jepson was grateful for one thing. This night the Jerries hadn't sen over their winged deaths. Lime house tonight could sleep

Suddenly, a frown crossed Constable Jepson's face. An Army lorry, rolling down the street, developed motor trouble, its engine banging loudly. The first quiet night in weeks and this had to happen!

A soldier was working on the engine as the Constable walked over. "Cut-out came off," he explained. "I'll have it fixed in a jiffy."

The Constable watched as the man's nimble fingers adjusted the difficulty. "The quicker the better," Constable Jepeon said. "These people need a quiet night. You could probably do with some yourself, soldier. Where are you going?"

The soldier, bent over the engine, said: "Back to Cheap side" He straightened up. "There, that does it!"

The lorry rolled down the street. Constable Jepson watched it progress. Then, he whistled. "Cor! But that must be one of the Army's counter-boys. He'll never get to Cheapside that way." He shook his head and wondered whether to phone the post ahead and let Constable Beamish put the young lad on the right track. But first there was still the matter of patrol to attend to. Sighing, Constable Jepson attended to it.

He was just finishing his patrol in the dark, it had its dangers as the Constable soon discovered. He cried out as a sharp pain ran through his ankle. His flashlight revealed an Army trench shovel.

Something registered in Constable Jepson's mind as the man

Constable Jepson was an honest man. He told the story and added: "All an accident, sir. I might not have known about this. I only wanted to correct a mistake. The little man outside said he almost missed the ex-King's speech because he was phoning. And I recalled that on the night of December 11, 1936, during the abdication speech, the telephone remained quiet for seven minutes!"

I Jumped from $18 a Week to $50 -a Free Book started me toward this GOOD PAY JOB IN RADIO

Here's How it Happened

By J. E. SMITH, N. R. I. Graduate
SENT UPON REQUEST

"I had an $18 a week job in a shoe factory, but desired to make more money and continue my education. I read about Radio Opportunities and enrolled with the National Radio Institute."

"The instruction I received was so practical I was soon able to earn $5 to $10 a week in spare time servicing radios. This led for the N. R. I. Course and led to service work leading to a college education."

"Radio servicing permitted me to attend school and make savings and work with. Upon completing the N. R. I. Course I was made Service Manager at $40 to $50 a week, more than twice my shoe factory wage."

"Later the N. R. I. Graduate Service Department sent me to Station KNCB as a Radio Operator. I am now Engineer of Station WYLL and connected with Telephone Station WYLL."

"The N. R. I. Course took me out of a low-pay shoe factory job and put me into Radio at good pay; enabled me to earn funds for a college education. There's a promising future for thoroughly trained Radio men."

among the country's best paid industries. Repairing, servicing, selling home and auto Radio receivers (there are over 50,000,000 in use) gives good jobs to thousands. Many other Radio Technicians take advantage of the opportunities to have their own service or retail Radio business. Think of the money good pay jobs in connection with Aviation, Commercial, Police Radio and Public Address Systems. N. R. I. gives you the required knowledge of Radio for these jobs. N. R. I. trains you to be ready when Television opens new jobs. Yes, Radio Technicians make good money because they use their hands as well as their heads. They must be trained. Many are getting special ratings in the Army and Navy; extra cash and pay.
